Civil Action No. 5:18-CT-3118 — D

v.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION
TO OBTAIN COUNSEL

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al,
CALVIN TERRANCE DAVIS,
Defendants

I. Introduction

Defendant Calvin Terrance Davis (hereafter "Davis") was served with a civil action on July 9, 2018. Davis is presently serving a thirteen (13) month sentence at Federal Correctional Institution Danbury, which is located in Connecticut. Due to the delay in service and his inability to obtain counsel while incarcerated, Davis, who files this motion pro se, would like to request an extension until after his release (scheduled for November 5, 2018) as he will be returning to Spring Lake, North Carolina to reside and will be able to obtain an attorney at that time.

II. Relief Sought

Calvin Terrance Davis, defendant, moves this court to extend the time to obtain counsel from August 9, 2018 to January 5, 2019, which is sixty (60) days following Davis's release from federal custody.

III. Grounds for Relief

The extra time is needed because the defendant is incarcerated and unable to obtain counsel. A sixty (60) day extension past Davis's release from federal custody on November 5, 2018 would allow Davis to obtain counsel upon reentry into the community.

To the best of the defendant's knowledge, there have been no previous extensions of time obtained from Marquez-Martinez or granted by the court.
